My dear Mr Hall (since,
I regret I did not see you - again, to express my admiration for the magnificent moral tone of your most dramatic play, a play which in these decadent days of morbid introspection cannot but deepen the sense of the greatness of character in human life.

With much gratitude,

Yours, respectfully,
St. Rupert Adair

I hope to preach on it, even as I preached on
'The Prodigal Son'.
