

THE OLD GRANARY,
CAMBRIDGE.

April 8 1904

Dear Mr Caine,

I must send you one
line of sincerest thanks for your kind letter. It gives me very deep satisfaction that you can write as you do of my book.

It will be a very great pleasure to meet
you. Perhaps, if you are in town, you will sometime let me come to see you & the address from which I write is my own house, and it is consequently the place where I least reside; but I am generally within reach of town.

Thanking you once
more, please believe me,
Sincerely & truly yours
Arthur Benson
