26th November, 1907.

Dear Sir,

In continuation of my letter of the 19th, Mr. Gladstone desires me to thank you once more for the valuable suggestions you have made to him in relation to the censorship of plays, and I am to inform you that he will take an early opportunity of laying them before His Majesty's government for their careful consideration. I am to add that some delay is likely to be caused by the recent illness of the Prime Minister, who will probably have to spend the time between now and the opening of Parliament on the Riviera.

I am,

Yours truly,

Hall Caine Esq.
Privy

H. Gladstone
