April 6 88

My dear Mr. Hale Canin,

Surely as you write us a femirish if you needly picturesque pen Whereas you are in the Brown and let me eul ogize you when I tell the ned it are quitli content — indeed more than content, for the advantage is all on my side. What did my inquiry as to your whereabouts was?
This. Charles Beard was with appearances of it. We had a watchful, por memon.
I could not bring myself up to the mark to write one myself. Have I but a Cold admiration for the Cold side of the menu intended. Let it
That I ever experienced the Same kind of separation in any similar case.
On one side of the subject I knew too much.
In the other not enough. As her death was expected within a day or two it most occurred to one to ask you whether it occurred to me to ask you take it chance as it came. And then, having that you were not likely then at home, I think you were not likely. But at home, I sent myerv to get the money, and so it was done very well—making The allowance for the ship analytic style of doing Character of public men which is here. Caught from E.R.R. I hope Mrs. Caine and The "brand" are well.
Jessie has been very Splendid up to this week.
But she has had a Slight relapse but we cannot just tell yet what it may quite tell yet what it may important. I should think it is very soon, however. Both the very soon. That is why.
Mrs. Cook to write in person. Eals I will will to yore. Your faithfully, With love
7. Hall Caine Esq.,
Aberleigh Lodge,
Bexley Heath,
Kent.