the prospect is promising. I very much hope you have benefitted by the air of the Common. Your letter was received with the greatest enthusiasm by a monster meeting.

My dear Camie,

If anything could make amends for your absence it would be your beautiful letter. And I am glad to see it reproduced largely in some of the Sunday papers.
I am hoping to convert you to my new point about the present waste of the Hirsch millions in unprofitable experiments. I am trying to lift this into a public question and as it was on several
