My Dear Papa,

for tomorrow (Tuesday)

I have got a Special way of Book & (unless I lose the Connection here) I shall hope to reach Victoria a little before 5 P.M.
if the train is not late.

If you are driving home on Friday night, as usual, it may be possible for you to take me along, but if you are not doing so I can quite well go by train. In the heat of joy don't attempt to drive, so much rest is now.

I think things are a little easier at Rosedale, but I am really a little afraid to return there, but they should not be, & I should be flung and such troubles as I had to Sunday before I left your house. That day really wrecked me.

I am far from strong & I really lack of nerves

I hope I may be able to do some good have been severely stricken. However I will hope for to matter to your daughter, but I am a little afraid that I shall do no good to them & my heart is melting. I don't see myself doing much. best. If you have not been able to help I don't see myself doing much.
the love & help we are able to give Father.
