BIOGRAPHY

MARLON CHEN is currently in his second year as a graduate conducting student of Larry Rachleff at The Shepherd School of Music. A native of Taiwan, Mr. Chen immigrated to the United States at the age of eight. A Houston resident for sixteen years, he attended the High School for the Performing and Visual Arts. He studied clarinet at the University of Michigan and graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree in music in 1995. This past summer he attended the Aspen Music Festival and participated in the conducting seminar directed by Murry Sidlin and David Zinman.

The Campanile Orchestra is a university and community organization. Musicians interested in joining the Campanile Orchestra should contact Marlon Chen at The Shepherd School of Music, 713-348-4854.
