About Us

The Rice Historical Review is a student-run, open access journal published online and in print. It features outstanding historically focused papers written by Rice undergraduates. All Rice undergraduates, regardless of major, are welcome to submit their work to the journal.

With this journal, we seek to emphasize the diversity of study within Rice’s History Department. We hope to foster discussion of historical topics on campus and in the greater Rice community.

Future Contributions

AUTHORS:
We will begin accepting submissions late Fall Semester of 2017 to early Spring Semester of 2018 for the Rice Historical Review’s Spring 2018 issue.

In order for submissions to be considered, papers must be:

- 10-25 pages in length, double-spaced
- Times New Roman size 12
- Citations must be formatted according to the Chicago Manual of Style with a bibliography included
- We ask that you submit illustrations, data, and other figures as separate files

Please send your submission to historicalreview@rice.edu attached as a Word document. We use a double blind-review process to ensure journalistic integrity, so we ask that you remove your name from the file of the essay itself.

For more information, please visit ricehistoricalreview.org/submissions.
