Beginning her violin studies at the age of two, HELEN NIGHTENGALE made her solo debut at the age of ten with the Louisville Orchestra playing the Mendelssohn Concerto, and at age sixteen performed the Tchaikovsky with the same orchestra. At the age of twenty, while attending the Eastman School of Music in Rochester, New York, as a full scholarship student, she was appointed to the Assistant Concertmaster position of the Louisville Orchestra. During her tenure there, she performed as soloist and chamber musician numerous times. Since that time, she has held various symphonic positions, including concertmaster positions with the London Symphony Orchestra, the Los Angeles Chamber Orchestra, the Los Angeles Opera, and the Lower Saxony State Opera in Hannover, Germany. In 1990 Ms. Nightengale attended the Ravinia Festival's Steans Institute for Young Artists, and, while there, founded the Kandinsky String Trio with two of the other participants; violist Hartmut Rohde and cellist Nikolai Schneider. Since 1991 the trio has achieved prominence and enjoyed great success in Europe. They have toured extensively in Germany and have also given concerts in Austria, France, and the Asian republics of Kazakhstan and Kurgistan. They can be heard on both the Naxos and Arte labels. In the spring of 2000, the trio made a very successful tour of the United States, including concerts in New York City and Washington, D.C. In the fall of 2001, Ms. Nightengale left the Kandinsky String Trio and Germany and returned to the United States to further her artistic range. In the recent past, Ms. Nightengale has appeared as soloist and in chamber music with pianists Menachem Pressler, Jeffrey Kahane, Jon Kimura Parker, and Steven Hough, and with cellists David Geringas and Lynn Harrell.

Her solo and recital engagements have included a United States State Department tour in Central America and performances with the Los Angeles Chamber Orchestra in Tokyo and Osaka.
